Re: FYC Apparel Group, LLC v. Victoria's Secret Direct, et al.
07 CV 3876 (WHP)

Honorable Sir:

I am the attorney for the plaintiff and am writing on behalf of all parties to request a 60 day extension of the January 31, 2008 discovery completion date set in the court's Scheduling Order No. 1. The parties have been pursuing both informal and formal discovery and actively discussing settlement. Plaintiff has served its initial discovery but has not as yet received defendants' responses. In addition both sides still need to conduct depositions. Because both sides believe the parties are close to achieving a settlement depositions have not as yet been conducted. The parties request that the dates be extended as follows: discovery completion - March 31, 2008; pre-trial order submission - April 30, 2008; and a new final pre-trial conference date be set.

There have been no prior requests for an extension of the Scheduling Order.

Respectfully yours,

Kenneth R. Schachter

application granted. This Court will hold a final pre-trial conference on May 16, 2008 at 10:45a.m. No further requests for adjournments will be granted.

SO ORDERED:

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III U.S.D.J.
